Importantly, remember that supportive measures, nutritional education and support, and provision of regular medical care ameliorate the effects of cocaine on the fetus.

An aggregate severity score (the sum of the erythema, thickness, and scale) was calculated for each patient at each evaluation point.

Nearly, 20% of patients are diagnosed with close podium, symptomatic disease.